1. Claims 1-22 are presented for examination.
2. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed. The examiner believes that the title of the invention is broad. A descriptive title indicative of the invention will help in proper indexing, classifying, searching, etc. See MPEP 606.01. However, the title of the invention should be limited to 500 characters.
3. The drawings filed on 6/27/03 are acceptable by the examiner. However, direct any inquiries concerning drawing review by the USPTO draftsperson to the Drawing Review Branch at (703) 305-8404.
4. The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification. Furthermore, all claims should be revised carefully to eliminate all grammatical errors and antecedent basis problems.
5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
6. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Patent 5,832,240 issued to Larsen et al.

As per claim 1, the reference of Larsen et al. teaches "a microprocessor" in Fig. 2, element 44; "a programmable logic device coupled to the microprocessor via a dedicated bus, and wherein the programmable logic device includes a configuration to provide I/O functionality to the system and includes one or more I/O interfaces" in Fig. 2, element PLD'S and col. 5, lines 8-15 and "a system port coupled to the programmable logic device" in Fig. 2, element 85 and col. 5, line 11.

As per claim 2, the reference of Larsen et al. teaches "a second bus coupled to the programmable logic device, wherein the system port is coupled to the second bus" in Fig. 2, element 86.

As per claim 3, the reference of Larsen et al. teaches "a plurality of ports coupled to the programmable logic device" in Fig. 2, element 85.

As per claim 4, the reference of Larsen et al. teaches "a plurality of ports coupled to the second bus" in Fig. 2, element 85.

As per claim 5, the reference of Larsen et al. teaches "wherein the programmable logic device includes a configuration to serve as a bridge between the dedicated bus and the system port" in col. 5, lines 8-11.

As per claim 6, the reference of Larsen et al. teaches "wherein the programmable logic device includes a configuration to serve as a bridge between the dedicated bus and the second bus" in col. 5, lines 8-11.

As per claim 7, the reference of Larsen et al. teaches "a microprocessor of specific type and the programmable logic device that included a configuration for functionality of the microprocessor" in col. 4, lines 5-14 and col. 5, lines 4-15.

As per claims 8-10, the limitations of the claims are variations of the limitation of claim 7. The reference of Larsen et al. teaches the added limitations of the claims in col. 4, lines 5-14; col. 5, lines 4-15 and col. 17, lines 1-16.

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 11-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over US Patent 5,832,240 issued to Larsen et al. in view of common knowledge in the art at the time of the invention.

As per dependent claims 11-22, the claims are rejected for the same reasons as discussed in the rejection of claim 1 with the exception of added limitations known in the art at the time of the invention such as, "the programmable logic device is a field programmable gate array" (claim 11), "the microprocessor is of type employing a RISC instruction set" (claim 12), "the programmable logic device are integrated in the same physical package" (claim 13), etc. The examiner takes Official Notice that the extra features claimed in claims 11-22 are well known in Data Processing art. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to implement those extra features in the system of Larsen et al. to arrive at the claimed invention so as to allow the system to be compatible with a widely used standard and to allow the system to take advantage of the many benefits provided by those extra features.

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Applicant is urged to consider the references. However, the references should be evaluated by what they suggest to one versed in the art, rather than by their specific disclosure.

The prior art submitted by applicant has been considered by the examiner and made of record in the file. Applicants are reminded that each individual associated with the filing and prosecution of a patent application has a duty of candor and good faith in dealing with the Office, which includes a duty to disclose to the Office all information known to that individual to be material to patentability as defined in 37 CFR 1.56. Applicants are advised to submit any information material to patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.

10. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Gopal C. Ray whose telephone number is (571) 272-3631. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday from 8:00 AM - 4:30 PM.
